MUNDO IMPERIAL ACAPULCO MEXICO

The FCI Americas and The Caribbean section would like to thank the FCI board members for giving our section the opportunity to host the 2nd FCI World Congress for Dog Show Judges from all over the world.

The congress will take place on June 24 and 25, 2019 in the framework of the FCI Americas and The Caribbean Section shows (from June 20 to 23) at "Mundo Imperial Acapulco" exhibition center; we are pleased to invite all the judges of the world to participate within this great congress that will be held place in the best convention and exhibition center in Latin America by the sea: Mundo Imperial Acapulco, Mexico.

All participants of the 2nd FCI world congress for dog show judges will be given a very special recognition with curricular value, for their assistance and updating; this will be signed by the FCI president, Mr. Rafael De Santiago.

In this congress, well known judges will participate as speakers in the different areas that form the academic program that will be conducted on June 24th and 25th, 2019; we are sure that all the topics will be of great interest for the update of the judges that officiate around the world.

Amongst the current and important topics will be included: behavior, health, genetic predisposition to hereditary diseases, nomenclature of colors and coats, evaluation in statics and dynamics, hyper types and evaluation of the dogs, among other topics of great interest.

We remind the judges that according to the rules of the FCI, it is necessary that all judges who judge around the world representing the FCI must attend conferences of this nature to keep up to date, and this will be a great opportunity to attend this congress, visiting the beautiful Acapulco bay, Mexico.

We also invite you to attend the dog show circuit of AMERICAS AND THE CARIBBEAN 2019 that will take place from June 20 to 23, where four all breed shows and some breed specialties will be held in the same exhibition center (Mundo Imperial), offering several titles for the winners.

Our country opens its doors to all dog lovers of the world, and we are proud to show visitors the beautiful Acapulco bay and especially to all of America, displaying the quality and warmth of the 20 countries that make up the FCI section of the Americas and the Caribbean.

Mexico invites you to experience the cultural and tourist wonders of our country offers and especially of this beautiful port of Acapulco; host of the "2nd FCI World Congress for exhibition judges", the "General Assembly of the FCI Section - Americas and the Caribbean" and the dog show circuit for the "Championship of the Americas and the Caribbean" in four days where awarding the titles of: "Ibero-American Champion", with judges from Ibero-America; "Pan-American Champion", "Intercontinental Champion", "International Champion", "Mexican Champion" and, in the great show on Sunday, June 23; "WINNER OF THE AMERICAS AND THE CARIBBEAN 2019".

Information about the exhibition (judges, titles, categories, etc.) and of the congress, is available at the page: www.fciamericasyelcaribe.com, as well as the information, videos and more of the hotel headquarters and the exhibition center.
